

Jan a

Dea S den Fac l Collabo a i eRe ea chG an Commi ee

I am i ing o en h ia icall ecommend he ojec ha Abigail O e f and Ta n Smi h a e o o ing fo f nding The ojec he a e o o ing i ho gh f ll de igned and Both Abbie and Tann have exceptional academic and have been elected in the in a ending graduate school. This project will demonstrate the ability of both of our students to conduct a manageable research project. Both students have been elected to the position of committee chair which is an indication of how well they contribute in the democratic process and their democratic identification. This can only be done by a strong and consistent research in foreign countries. Doing research in Ireland and Northern Ireland will provide both of the students with the foundation they need to engage in further research endeavors.

Both students are highly gaining the theoretical and methodological experience they need to conduct research on their topic. Both look forward to the political of the election. Abbie looks forward to the United Kingdom which helped her understand and the history of Northern Ireland.
Abbie also looks forward to the research methodology she has gained methodological insight into how to design a research project in the field of technology and how to analyze data.

Although neither Abbie nor Tann

